

Aberdeen International
Youth Festival

Norman Cooper Chamber Music Competition

Who Can Enter?

The competition is open to young orchestral ensembles, formed from Festival participants, or whose members live or study in Aberdeen, Aberdeenshire or Moray.

Is there an age limit?

Members of the group should not be more than 25 years of age on 1 August 2010.

What size of group can enter?

Any size from a duo up to thirteen players.

How many rounds will there be?

Depending on how many entrants there are, there will be preliminary rounds held in the first week of August. The final will be in the form of a public concert, also in the first week of August (dates tbc).

How long should the music be?

Groups should be prepared to play for approximately 12 - 15 minutes.

What is the prize?

A monetary first prize will be awarded to the best chamber group

Application Form

Name of Chamber Group

Number of Players

Please list the name of each member of the group with their instrument:

Please provide the name and composer of the work or works to be played together with approximate timings:

Please complete this form and send it by 12 July 2010 to the AIYF Office,
35 Regent Quay, Aberdeen AB11 5BE
