

Changes to Programme

The following changes have been made to the AIYF 2010 programme

Wednesday 28th July

- The performance at Kemnay Village Hall will be given by Daraadji from Senegal.

Thursday 29th July

- The performance in Peterhead will be at the Waterside Inn, not the Community Centre, and Kaifa will be joined by Bluestones. Tickets are £5 available from bluestonesmusic@btinternet.com or on 01779 489432.
- Tickets for the Sideline Quartet at the Blue Lamp are £10/£8 + 10% bf.

Friday 30th July

- Local singer-songwriter Myke Black will perform a lunchtime set at the Lemon Tree at 1pm for free.
- The Findhorn performance will be given by the Hungarian Dance Academy and Chameleon (subject to final confirmation).

Saturday 31st July

- The Up Close and Musical performance at the Lemon Tree at 1pm will be given by SCAT.

Monday 2nd August

- The performance at Dalrymple Hall in Fraserburgh will be given by VIVALini, Miyanda and Doina.

Tuesday 3rd August

- Theatre double bill at the Lemon Tree is a single bill with Children of the Heart.
- The performance at the Webster Theatre in Arbroath is cancelled.
- Andrew Kagumba will no longer be appearing at the Inverurie Gala (Inverurie Town Hall).
- The Chamber Music Competition has been cancelled.

Wednesday 4th August

- Up Close and Musical at 11am will now be held at the MacRobert Building, University of Aberdeen, and not St Mary's Church. The performer is Sarah Ayoub.
- The Up Close and Musical performance at Queens Cross Church will be given by Westmorland Youth Orchestra and Duet F: Anna Aysina and Helena Kosaya.
- The theatre double bill at the Lemon is Children of the Heart and Kinetic.
- The performance at Woodend Barn will be given by Daraadji alone.

Thursday 5th August

- The performance at the Webster Theatre in Arbroath will be given by Westmorland Youth Orchestra and Duet F: Anna Aysina and Helena Kosaya.
- The theatre double bill at the Lemon Tree is a single bill with Kinetic.

Friday 6th August

- Andrew Kagumba will not be performing at the Lonach Hall in Strathdon – BIFOLK will perform alone.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused by these unavoidable changes. Should you have any questions, please contact the AIYF office on 01224 213800.